Sheehan Phinney Capitol Group is a Concord, New Hampshire based government relations and lobbying firm. Our affiliation with the Capitol Group provides clients of Sheehan Phinney Bass + Green with access to a comprehensive range of legislative and government-relations services in the New England capitols and in Washington, D.C.

Capitol Group represents industry and non-profit associations and individual companies in New England and around the country. It offers its clients extensive experience in all sectors of New Hampshire State government. Capitol Group's lobbyists work hard to understand their clients' objectives and issues. The lobbyists then utilize their knowledge of the legislative and regulatory process and their long-term, trusted relationships with decision makers to achieve their clients' goals.

Capitol Group offers an array of services in order to meet each client's needs and budget. Representation can vary from advocacy on a single piece of legislation to development and implementation of a long-term government relations strategy. Capitol Group provides timely reports, legislative calendars, and its analysis and commentary on key issues for its clients. This includes factual reports on hearings, work sessions and votes, as well as insights with respect to the political dynamics of a given issue and legislative session.
