

The Clients We Represent and the Matters We Handle

Sheehan Phinney's diverse client base includes local and regional businesses, institutions and municipalities, as well as national and international businesses with interest in the northeast. Our services range from the formation of a new company, to an initial public offering; from working through local regulatory issues to compliance with national and international administrative requirements; and from simple contract disputes to "bet-the company" litigations involving hundreds of millions of dollars. Our list of practice areas will give you a better idea of the scope of matters we handle.

At Sheehan Phinney, we understand that effective client service means first taking the time to understand your business and your objectives, and then delivering legal counsel to meet those objectives. Regardless of size, your matter will be handled by an attorney at the top of the particular field, with staffing that is appropriate for the size and complexity of the matter. Your phone calls will be returned promptly, your questions answered directly, and your deadlines and expectations met to the very best of our abilities.

At Sheehan Phinney, our clients range from publicly-traded companies like Skillsoft and Oxford Health Plans to home-grown successes like Stonyfield Farm and The New Hampshire Fisher Cats. When large, international companies like The Maytag Corporation have legal affairs in New England, they call us. We represent large educational institutions like Dartmouth College and Southern New Hampshire University, healthcare facilities from Littleton Regional Hospital to Exeter Hospital, not-for-profits like Easter Seals of New Hampshire, and New Hampshire landmarks like Canobie Lake Park. We also represent a host of professional practices, entrepreneurs, small businesses, and individuals.

At Sheehan Phinney, we recognize that your selection of a lawyer is a matter of trust. We will work hard to earn your trust and keep it. This simple, respectful approach to client service has earned Sheehan Phinney its exemplary reputation for more than 70 years.
