Patrick J. Hannon

Associate

Practice Focus

Patrick is an experienced trial attorney representing businesses and individuals in a broad range of litigation matters, including business, tax, construction, labor and probate disputes.

In addition to his litigation practice, Patrick also provides advice to businesses and individuals concerning potential disputes with the Internal Revenue Service.

Prior to joining the firm, Patrick served as a Trial Attorney with the United States Department of Justice, Tax Division in Washington, DC. Over his four years with the Justice Department, he litigated hundreds of cases in federal court and tried both bench and jury trials. In 2008, Patrick received an "Outstanding Attorney" award from the Tax Division.

Memberships and Admissions

Patrick is admitted to practice in Massachusetts as well as the Massachusetts Federal District Court.

Honors

Patrick was a law clerk for the Honorable Gene Carter of the United States District Court for the District of Maine.
