

Do you have an Advance Directive?

ACT NOW - BEFORE IT'S TOO LATE

DID YOU KNOW THAT

- If your spouse has a car accident and lands in the Hospital tomorrow in an unconscious state....or
- If your college-age child temporarily loses consciousness and winds up in the Infirmary...or
- If your elderly mother with Alzheimer's requires treatment...

You may have no legal authority to make healthcare decisions in their behalf?

UNLESS...

They have, while competent, executed a Durable Power of Attorney for Healthcare document naming you as their Agent.

And by the way, have you executed an Advance Directive naming an Agent of your choice?
