

Ernst & Young Tax Attorney Rejoins Sheehan Phinney

Peter T. Beach, a seasoned tax attorney with broad experience in sophisticated federal, state and international tax matters has rejoined Sheehan Phinney Bass + Green PA as a partner practicing in the firm's Corporate and Tax Practices. Peter has a reputation for creating practical solutions that effectively integrate tax, business, strategic and legal concerns.

For the past four years, Peter has been a partner with Ernst & Young's West Coast National Office where he provided tax advice to companies participating in complex financing transactions, managed tax due diligence projects for acquisitions involving both small and exceptionally large targets, and structured partnership recaps and complex debt workouts that allowed clients to significantly reduce tax liabilities.

From 1996-2001, he was a partner and chairman of the Tax Department at Sheehan Phinney.

Peter is admitted to practice in New Hampshire and in the District of Columbia. He can be reached directly at 603.627.8185, or at pbeach@sheehan.com.
