

Robert H. Miller Becomes a Director of Sheehan Phinney

Sheehan Phinney Bass + Green PA welcomes Robert H. Miller as a newly-elected director of the firm.

Rob focuses his civil litigation practice on intellectual property disputes and other large-scale commercial litigation in the state and federal courts. He also is one of New Hampshire's foremost authorities on the scope and application of the New Hampshire Consumer Protection Act.

Named as one of 2004's "40 Under Forty" emerging young leaders, Rob sits on the Board of Directors for Leadership Manchester, Camp Belknap, and the City of Manchester's "One Book One City" program. He also serves as an Allocations Team Captain for the Greater Manchester United Way, and as Vice President of the Yale Club of New Hampshire and a member of the Club's Executive Committee.

Rob has written a series of graduate school preparatory books including the best selling Law School Confidential: A Complete Guide to the Law School Experience By Students for Students (rev. 2004); Business School Confidential, which he co-authored (2003); and Med School Confidential (2005). A fourth book, College Confidential: A Complete Guide to the College Experience By Students for Students, will be published in 2006.

He holds a B.A. from Yale University and a J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania Law School.

Rob can be reached directly at 603.627.8145, or at rmiller@sheehan.com.
