

SHEEHAN PHINNEY

Andrew J. Newcombe

Associate | Manchester, NH

Andrew joined the firm in 2023 and is a member of its Corporate Group. Andrew assists with entity formations, contract and employment matters, and a range of other general corporate matters, including data privacy and security. Andrew is also interested in corporate and non-profit governance and federal and state regulatory issues.

Before joining the firm, Andrew served as a Legal Intern for the United States Attorney's Office for the District of NH. He's currently an Individual Ready Reserve Officer for the US Army, formerly serving as an Active Duty Infantry officer from 2014-2017. While at Duke University School of Law, he served as Co-Director for the Duke Law Veterans Assistance Project, as well as a Student Attorney for the Community Enterprise Clinic and the Wrongful Convictions Clinic.

Contact Information

Phone: 603.627.8178

Email:
anewcombe@sheehan.com

Practice Areas

- Corporate
- Data Privacy & Security
- Real Estate & Development
- Labor & Employment

Admissions

- State of New Hampshire
- U.S. District Court for the District of New Hampshire

SHEEHAN PHINNEY

Education

- B.S., University of Massachusetts, Amherst
- J.D., Duke University School of Law

Civic Involvement

- Former Active Duty Infantry officer in the US Army (2014 – 2017)
- Current Army Individual Ready Reserve Officer (2017 – present)
- Legal Intern, United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Hampshire (2021)
- Co-Director, Duke Law Veterans Assistance Project (2021)
- Student Attorney, Duke Law Community Enterprise Clinic (2022)
- Student Attorney, Duke Law Wrongful Convictions Clinic (2023)

Awards

- Duke University School of Law Certificate in Public Interest and Public Service Law (2023)
- Duke University School of Law Pro Bono Service Award (2023)

Publications

- NH Legal Perspective: The Corporate Transparency Act is here: Is your business ready?