

Municipal, County & State Governments

The legislative and administrative maze of municipal, county, and state government can be overwhelming. The Labor and Employment Group at Sheehan Phinney has handled a wide variety of claims with and against public government entities (e.g. school districts, towns, cities, county governments, as well as, state agencies.). From obtaining permits and public contract approval to handling complex environmental cases, to negotiating union contracts, handling grievances, assisting with compliance to defending employment claims, our legal team has assisted clients in vast number of municipal, county, and state government cases. Our attorneys are well-known for their ability to handle complex deals and resolve difficult problems.