

SHEEHAN PHINNEY

Mediation & Arbitration

Most civil cases are resolved without trial, either through mediation, arbitration, or some other form of alternative dispute resolution. For the Sheehan Phinney Business Litigation Group, alternative dispute resolution is a daily practice, and there is no substitute for this wealth of experience. We know that the party who is best prepared and follows the smartest strategy often succeeds. We work diligently, thoughtfully, and efficiently, focused on our clients' businesses and their objectives.
