

SHEEHAN PHINNEY

Renee L. Lubinski

Paralegal | Manchester, NH

Renee L. Lubinski has been a paralegal for over 20 years. She attended Newbury College in Brookline, Massachusetts for two years. Renee has been an Enrolled Agent (“EA”) with the Internal Revenue Service since 1996, and is both a Notary Public and Justice of the Peace. Renee worked with several large law firms in the Boston, Manchester and Nashua areas from 1986 to 2004, developing in-depth knowledge and expertise in the areas of probate and trust administration, and tax related issues. Prior to Sheehan Phinney, she worked at Butenhof & Bomster where she worked on guardianships, estate planning, and trust administration matters. Renee is active in her community, having served on several boards of directors for local children’s athletic organizations and coaching young cheerleaders at the youth, all-star and high school levels. In 2007, she helped lead a local high school cheerleading squad to their first state championship.
